

"Your Opinion Matters, and I am Coming to Hear What You Have to Say."

- Congressman Becerra

July 13, 2006

Dear Friends:

Your opinion matters, and I am coming once again to your neighborhood to hear what you have to say. As your representative for the past 13 years, I have made it a priority to seek out your thoughts and views on various issues to guide me in voting for the policies that best fit the needs of our community.

Social Security, budget deficits, terrorism, taxes, cuts to education and healthcare – these are the issues that dramatically affect our lives and are being discussed most today in our nation's capital. But thoughtful debate in Washington starts here at home. That is why I would like to take this opportunity to invite you to join in on a discussion of the issues you're most concerned about.
